ONE LAWYER CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

WILL YOU BE THE NEXT GREAT LEGAL MIND?

In the right hands, a law degree can be a powerful tool. History is filled with great accounts of leaders who made it their life's work to embody the law and serve as agents of change. Abraham Lincoln and Nelson Mandela are good examples of how one lawyer can change the world. We are betting that you could be next.

BARBRI Law Preview and the American Bar Association have partnered to offer one hard-working incoming law student a $10,000 scholarship towards their first year tuition, and a second scholarship to the runner up in the amount of $5,000.

- Visit lawpreview.barbri.com/10000-scholarship to complete an application.
- Submit a 250-word essay online no later than April 15, 2017, in response to: How you hope to use your law degree to change our world and how would $10,000 towards your 1L tuition change your world?
- 10 finalists will be selected by Law Preview and notified by April 25, 2017. Finalists will be announced soon after on lawpreview.com.
- The scholarship recipients will be chosen by the chair of the ABA's Young Lawyers Division, and the award will be paid directly to the winners' law schools. Notification will take place on or before June 10, 2017.

“Winning the $10K scholarship allowed me to follow my dreams of attending law school. It has made a huge difference in making school affordable and alleviated a huge part of my stress over finances. I love the law school I’m at and would not have been able to make this decision if it were not for the help of BARBRI.”
